To the Old Farmers.

CRAB ORCHARD, KY., Jan. 7.—The very foundation stone of prosperity and domestic happiness is agriculture. The abode of virtue and morality and christianity. Oh, the joys of the happy country home! These thoughts have their origin from the fact that I recently stayed all night with the old veteran, Talbot B. Edwards, and his his gallant boys, Edgar and Harve; Edgar with his quiet, domestic and beautiful wife and three bright little boys and girls, so intellectual. No loud words, no fussing, no quarreling, no crying, no strife, no contention! Old-fashioned fire-place, with the log-wood fire throwing its genial warmth over the happy circle, the table creaking and groaning under the weight of good things his busy domestic wife placed upon it. What a happy man! What a happy wife! What a happy family! Mr. Edwards said it had been months since he had spent a dollar for his table. The farm runs the whole thing, and when he was bound to have something this climate did not produce, he called upon Dame Fortune and she joyously contributed to supply the sugar and coffee, and the two fine milk cows furnished six pounds of snowy globules a week. There is a good living for a whole family! Oh, happy farmer! You feed us all and yet all are against you. And you are taxed to death. The land holder, the consumer, pay the tariff to the government and taxes to the State and county. Under the present tariff law you must pay annually $325,000,000. 'Tis not the importer, it's not the whole-sale merchant, it's not the retail merchant that pays the tariff. It is the consumer. I looked at the honest face of the old farmer, scarred and furrowed by the cares and plowshares of time, and thought how little the office holders cared for him and his interests. It has been bad for him for half a century; taxes grow higher every year, and like old Atlas of old, the whole world is on his bended shoulders. Poor old farmer, try to live within yourselves and raise what you want to eat and buy clothes and pay taxes with the surplus! Commence plowing now for corn and throw the dirt from the fence, and not against it! FOUNTAINE FOX HOBBITT.

Money lenders will have a fine change at Lexington, since the county officials have declared that the tax collection of 1910 cannot be anticipated. There is no money in the treasury, and warrants will be issued each month to the various county employees. These can be hypothecated by the impecunious.

HON. HARVEY HELM.

of Lincoln county, is a candidate for re-nomination for Congress from the Eighth district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

THE Anti-Saloon League has been one of the most effective methods of fighting the liquor curse that has ever been employed. It is a union of christian men and women of the Nation, organized into an army of aggressive workers. Each State has an organization, an executive committee for the State, with a State superintendent, State president, secretary, treasurer, etc. Then the effort is made to have each county organized. In most States there is an organ published which is a great power in the work. The organization is non-partisan. It seeks to have men elected to office who are pledged to temperance legislation without regard to their party name. The immediate object of the organization is to restrict the sale of liquor, and it has for its ultimate object the prohibition of both the sale and manufacture of liquors for beverage purposes. Under the leadership of this organization legislation favorable to temperance has been secured to a more or less extent in all the States and Territories of the Nation. It works in harmony with all organizations which have the same end in view. It therefore does not claim all the honor for what has been accomplished in the past few years, but it does claim to have been a most potent factor in these triumphs. It is the largest and most effective organization at work today in the interest of true temperance. There is room in it for every man and woman in the church, or out of the church, who desires to see the Nation freed from the awful curse of rum.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, JR., foreman of the special grand jury which is investigating the white slave evil in the environs of Greater New York, will not allow lack of money to impede the progress of investigators. Indeed, the son of the world's richest man has announced that he would throw open the doors of the Rockefeller treasure chest spending some part of the Standard Oil millions to sift the question of white slavery to the very end. Mr. Rockefeller has declared that he will head the investigation with heart and soul, and when he learned that the special grand jury would be hampered by lack of funds he said that he would furnish enough money to insure success for the work. Many of the men suspected have fled from the city, and it will take a long and laborious inquiry to secure the necessary evidence to have them brought back. Mr. Rockefeller has made arrangements for his subordinates concerned to take further control of his affairs to devote pretty nearly all his time to unearthing the so-called "white slavers."

In an interview Judge E. C. O'Rear, of the Court of Appeals, says he will not be a candidate for the republican nomination for governor. The judge has always been accounted quite "foxy" and he very nearly demonstrates that he has been judged correctly. The honor would be an empty one and no one knows it better than he. The next governor of Kentucky is as certain to be a democrat as the day of election rolls around.

MISSOURI Democrats from every county in the State and numbering over 600 gathered at Convention Hall in Kansas City in a "harmony conference." Nearly all the leaders of the party in the State were on hand and the spirit of all the speeches was "Missouri must be redeemed." "Canonism" and "Aldrichism," as characterized by the speakers, was denounced.

W. M. HULL, formerly of the Louisville Courier-Journal and Times, is dead in New York. He was a good newspaper man, but left journalism for the dramatic field and up to the time of his last illness, was press agent for some big theatrical attraction. In this capacity he visited Louisville a number of times and renewed old acquaintances.

"Who's Who in the Kentucky General Assembly," the little volume issued by The Times to commemorate the first session of the Legislature in the new Capitol, is a book that will be preserved for years to come. It gives a short sketch of each Senator and Representative and other information of value.

THAT the deadlock prevailing in the democratic caucus for the selection of a successor to the late United States Senator A. J. McLaughlin will not soon be broken is apparent. Many are of the opinion that the deadlock will continue well into next week when a "dark horse" will be placed before the caucus.

POLITICAL.

U. S. Jackson, of Greenfield, was elected chairman of the Indiana Democratic State Central Committee, with out contest.

Gov. Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, was endorsed for President by the Sixth District, Va., democrats, in session at Cambridge City.

Gov. Brown has issued a proclamation calling for an election in the Second Georgia district on Feb. 1 to succeed Congressman Griggs, of Dawson, Ga., who died a few days ago.

The president of the American Warehouse Association says there are a billion, five hundred million eggs in cold storage in the United States. Looks like now is the time to dispose of a few of them.

President Taft is still looking forward to a trip to Alaska late in the coming Spring. He plans to go to the far northwestern territory immediately after the adjournment of Congress and before going to Beverly for the late summer and fall.

In an interview Representative Norris, of Nebraska, charged the president with singling out the House enemies of Speaker Cannon for punishment by withholding patronage, and declared that they would not be intimidated into silence by any combination between the president and the speaker.

Senator Conn Linn, of Calloway county, has introduced a bill which proposes to increase the salary of circuit judges $1,200 a year, but which requires them to serve as special judge without the extra $8 a day that they receive under the present law. The bill applies to all circuit judges except in districts containing cities of the first and second-class.

Gilford Pinchot was removed from his office as chief forester by President Taft. In doing this the President gave out a copy of a letter he had written to Pinchot in which he says in conclusion: "By your conduct you have destroyed your usefulness as a helper subordinate of the government, and it therefore now becomes my duty to direct the Secretary of Agriculture to remove you from your office as forester."

Senator Thomas P. Gore, of Oklahoma, speaking of Danville, the home town of Speaker Joseph Cannon, at Jackson Day celebration of the democrats in Louisville, attacked the standpat tyranny of Mr. Cannon and Senator Aldrich, declaring that they stood in the path of progress. He asserted that President Roosevelt conducted affairs without their aid, but that President Taft had surrendered to them at the first summons.

There will be a union meeting at the Christian church Jan. 16, at 11 A. M., in the interest of the anti-saloon league. Rev. C. B. Arendall, a fine speaker, will make the address.

J. W. Allen, who has been down with a severe case of pneumonia for ten days, is reported some better. His son, Carroll Reid, who has also been ill, is improving. John G. Lynn is very ill with pneumonia.

The severe wintry blast last Thursday prevented the meeting of the ladies of the C. W. B. M. at Mrs. E. McCormack's. They will, however, meet there Thursday at 2 p. m., to which all members are cordially invited.

Prof. Galvani played to two good houses here on Friday and Saturday nights. His performance completely convulsed the audience, and the simple announcement of his return in future would make standing room at a premium.

Mrs. Mary Dodd, the beloved mother of Wm. Dodd, passed into that eternal rest prepared by Him for his loved ones from the foundation of the earth. She was 86 years old on Jan. 8, the day of her death, and was not a member of any congregation, but loved and served her Maker. After a short service at the house by Rev. Jones, of the Baptist church, she was buried in the Hustonville cemetery.

Dearest mother, how we miss her, None but God, can ever tell, Yet none can doubt His wisdom, For He doeth all things well.

Resolutions Passed by the Fiscal Court on Judge J. S. Owsley, Jr.

Squire Adams introduced the following resolution and moved that it be adopted and spread on the records of this court and published in the INTERIOR JOURNAL, which motion was seconded by Squire W. M. Dudderrar, and carried unanimously by the court: "In view of the fact that Hon. John S. Owsley, Jr., will retire from the judgeship of the Lincoln county court at the end of the present year, this court, as an evidence of appreciation of his services, places on record this testimonial:

As judge of the Lincoln county court Hon. John S. Owsley, Jr., has performed his onerous duties faithfully and impartially. He has been watchful of the county's interests and has endeavored in every way to conduct its affairs on an economical basis.

As the presiding officer of the fiscal court, he has invariably been courteous, accurate and impartial. He is entitled to the sincere thanks of this court and the people of Lincoln county for the faithfulness he has shown in the performance of his duties." MAGISTRATES.

DRY FEET.

What is as important at this season of the year than good dry serviceable

Footwear

Shoes that will wear well, and keep the feet practically dry, the most foolish person is he who neglects his feet in Winter. We do our very best to get the longest wearing and dryest footwear possible. That heavy calf shoe at $3.50 and $4. The "Hocker Bootee" leather lined at $5. Old Honest Mike boots and shoes you all know, and that boys Level Best School shoe just a little better than anybodys at $2, $2.25 and $2.50 according to size. When it comes to we have them all beaten a block. Our all rubber arctics at $2.25 and $2.50, our rubber boot at $4 and our $6 rubber boot with hand sewed leather soles, are all in a class by themselves. The best rubber footwear on the globe pretty strong but its true.

"Walk-over"

NEW STORE FOR C. O.—Henry D. Campbell and W. C. Pettus, who sold their drug store at Wilmore, will open in a few days in the Buchanan store-room at Crab Orchard an up-to-date stock of drugs. Their many friends are glad to have Messrs. Campbell and Pettus and their excellent families in the East End again.

At a meeting of the Crab Orchard Banking Co. stockholders held Monday, Capt. J. B. Willis was elected director in the place of Dr. M. M. Phillips, who moved to this place. There was no other change in the directory. The directors then held a meeting and elected the old officers—J. H. Collier, president; W. E. Perkins, vice president, and J. C. Bailey, cashier.

At the meeting of the city council Thursday night, Mr. J. R. Powell was elected councilman to take the place of Mr. Cicero Reynolds, who was elected but declined to qualify. Mr. Joseph B. Paxton was re-elected city attorney. B. D. Carter was again elected chief of police and Mr. L. R. Hughes was for the twentieth time chosen city clerk.

Messrs. John J. McRoberts and Welch Rochester were nominated for treasurer and each got three votes, but Mayor Florence, who had the deciding vote, refused to break the tie and no treasurer was elected. The per cent. for collecting city taxes was raised to 10c on each $100, which makes the chief of police's office about the best thing in town.

"MA'S NEW HUSBAND."—There is not a moment during the performance of "Ma's New Husband" when the auditor is obliged to grope for the thread of the story. The characters are well introduced before the end of the first act, and the interest is cleverly sustained throughout. Few, if any musical farces of this type can claim as much, just as few of them can keep an audience in the land of laughter for so long a time. The book, the music and the musical numbers give the clever comedians and comedienne in Harry Scott's company splendid opportunity for a display of their talents, and they certainly acquit themselves well, judging from the praise given them in other cities. The piece is due at Walton's Opera House this, Tuesday evening. Tickets are on sale at Shugars & Tanner's drug store.

If you would laugh and grow fat, see "Ma's New Husband" at Walton's Opera House, to-night, Tuesday.

GALVANI, the great hypnotist, will hold the boards at Maccabee Hall, at McKinney, to-night, Tuesday.

THE mercury registered zero yesterday morning, but warmer weather is promised. Snow still covers the earth.

LOST.—Grip between Moreland and Kidd's Store containing two blankets and other articles. G. B. Pruitt, Moreland.

THE city council of Liberty has put a tax of $1,000 on soft drinks. This was done to stop the sale of the several desecrations of beer.

FOUR saloons have opened in Somerset and nine more have license to do so. We hear that Mr. E. O. Gooch, of McKinney, was granted saloon license there.

THE Kerr-Edwards Co. begins a three nights' engagement at Walton's Opera House Thursday night, next, 13th. The opening bill will be "My Dixie Girl," a charming Southern play. Prices 15c, 25c and 35c.

LEACH.—John Leach, aged 36, died at the home of his father, Henry Leach, of kidney trouble, and was buried at Pleasant Point Sunday after services by Squire J. N. Singleton. He was unmarried and had been ill for some time.

TO TAXPAYERS LINCOLN COUNTY.—I will have to advertise and sell your property after Jan. 1 if your tax is not paid in order to make my final settlement with the State and county. Settle up and save this expense. T. J. Hill, sheriff.

STEPHENS.—The sad news comes from Lexington that Mr. James H. Stephens, formerly of this county, died of paralysis there last week, aged about 55. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. W. A. Eubanks. Mr. Stephens was a devout member of the Christian church and a splendid man.

ALL things come to him who waits. Judge M. C. Saufley, who was turned down for a renomination for circuit judge by a convention at Danville six years ago, had the satisfaction last Monday of opening court in the same city, after being elected by the largest majority ever given in that district.—Lexington Gazette.

SUNDAY, JAN. 16TH, is Lincoln county field day in the temperance cause. Speakers sent by the executive committee of the Anti-Saloon League will speak at Stanford, Crab Orchard, Hustonville and McKinney. It is hoped that large audiences will greet these speakers at each place. Names and hours of speaking will be given in our Friday's issue.

OWING to the death of Chief Clerk William Cromwell, the duty of calling the State Senate to order devolved on Assistant Clerk Jesse M. Alverson, of Lincoln county. The rise of this young man in the political world has been phenomenal. A few years ago he began setting type in the INTERIOR JOURNAL office, with which paper he is still connected. He had political ambitions and was soon elected to the Legislature. Since then he has held office continually until now a great honor is his. He could have been elected chief clerk of the Senate, but preferred his former position of assistant.—W. P. Walton in Lexington Gazette.

"MA'S NEW HUSBAND."—Everything points to a gay and merry time at Walton's Opera House to-night, Tuesday, when "Ma's New Husband" will be given its only performance. Before booking this attraction the management had numerous proofs of its popularity as a big laugh-maker. It is a three act musical farce with most amusing characters and an original story. It is thoroughly up-to-date in the tone of its comedy and its bright music and popular song hits. The latter are spoken of as being the best heard this season. Those which are credited with the greatest number of encores are: "A Quiet Little Game," "Would You Kiss Me?" "Got Your Tip From Me," "Jokes," "A Kiss," and "I Love No One But You." The Harry Scott Co. has an excellent company of farceurs who never fail to keep the audience in good humor throughout the entire performance. Seats on sale at Shugars & Tanner's Drug Store.

If you can't collect your accounts, get the May Collecting Agency of Somerset to do it for you. See "ad."

BUTT.—Little Laura Estella Butt, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Butt, died at her home at Highland of peritonitis and was buried in the graveyard of the Methodist church there Sunday, after funeral services by Rev. Haggard. She was a sweet, pretty child and her parents are almost crushed over the loss of her. Deceased was a sister of Miss Annie Butt, who attends school here.

Fire of unknown origin at Millersburg destroyed the hardware store of Miller & Best. The loss totals $5,000 with $2,500 insurance. The East Tennessee Telephone Co.'s exchange and the Odd Fellows' building adjoining were badly damaged by fire and water.

United States secret service men, who have been investigating the Burley Tobacco Society, asserted at Cincinnati that suit for dissolution of the society on the ground that it operates in violation of the Sherman law will be begun in the United States District Court there in a few days.

STANFORD COURT.—There were 600 cattle on the market here yesterday and the demand was good. Prices ranged from 3c to 5½c. The latter price was for a choice bunch of 1,100-pound steers. The horse market was quiet but there was a big demand for mules and good ones brought $175 to $225. The crowd was good, considering the weather.

The Lawrenceburg News says that T. J. Neal, of that county, paid $1 for a pig on July 24, and carried it home in his pocket. On the 9th day of December it was slaughtered and there was rendered from it three gallons of lard. The pig weighed on the day it was killed 184 pounds and was at the time 158 days old, representing a growth of 1.16 pounds per day.

BARGAIN.—354 acres of good land, of which 100 acres is bottom land, eight-room dwelling, two good stock barns, new tobacco barn, 36x96, ice house, buggy house, two corn cribs, etc., two good cisterns, the whole farm being well watered, well fenced and lays well. Will sell as a whole or cut 200 acres with improvements, to suit purchaser, which includes 100 acres as fine bottom land as there is in the county. This is a bargain. See L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

Senator R. L. Hubble was in Lexington last night and in speaking of the newspaper muddle of the Legislature, he said that each member should order the paper he wanted and pay for it himself, and not be forced to take the one that the other members vote on him. This is the correct principle — The Lexington Gazette.

Another fight between the insurgents and the organization in the House has been precipitated by the action of the Senate Committee on Public Lands in reporting a resolution authorizing the appointment by the vice president and speaker of a joint committee to investigate the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy.

Frank Kimbler, of near Winters, Tex., killed his wife and two children, two and eight years old, and seriously injured his niece with a hatchet, and then took his own life with a razor. The cause is believed to have been due to ill health.

President Finley, of the Southern railway, has returned from a tour of the South and reported unusual prosperity all along the line. He said the phenomenal prosperity of the Southern States is not confined to the cotton planter, but the corn and food-stuff grower and manufacturer shares it as well. He reported 266 bushels of corn gathered from one acre of ground in Wake county, South Carolina.

Isaac W. McLean, a merchant of Chattanooga, Tenn., shot and killed Robert Kitchen, 18 years old, in East Chattanooga. McLean had ordered some small boys away from the front of his store and when Kitchen interfered in behalf of the children he was shot.
